

FYIsoft Positions for Growth with Addition of Vice President of Sales Jeff Brandeis

NAPLES, FL – July 10, 2017 – FYIsoft, a leading provider of cloud financial reporting software, announces that Jeff Brandeis has joined the company as Vice President of Sales. In this role, Mr. Brandeis will oversee the sales teams dedicated to helping CFOs understand how FYIsoft's financial reporting software greatly improves operating efficiencies and their overall success.

Mr. Brandeis' in-depth knowledge and understanding of the company's customer base was developed during his 25+ year career as both a practicing accountant and a sales business leader within the finance divisions of global information services company, Wolters Kluwer, including ELM Solutions and CCH.

This leadership experience in growing and managing successful sales teams within the financial technology (FinTech) industry makes him ideally suited to lead FYIsoft's anticipated growth.

"I am very excited to join FYIsoft," said Jeff Brandeis. "The ability to eliminate much of the stress that comes with the responsibilities of reporting a company's financial health, and the ability to cut days or weeks off of the close process, is something that every financial executive strives for. There is enormous opportunity to expand our footprint and our team is eager to meet this rising demand."
